

2009

SPECIAL WORKSHOP

Chairperson: Rafel Masiá

11:00

Alternatives for extending the limits of primary prevention

Jaume Marrugat

11:20

Advances in the genetics of coronary disease

Roberto Elosua

11:40

Gene therapy, a new horizon

JOHN MARTIN

12:10

DISCUSSION

12:40

What are the European Society of Cardiology's plans for cardiovascular prevention in Europe in 2009-2010

JOHN MARTIN

13:00

LUNCH AT THE TERRACE

Thursday

02

July 2009

11.00h

Sala

Xipre

173.06

Acknowledgements:
www.redheracles.net

Red HERACLES
de investigación cardiovascular

IMIM - Hospital del Mar
Edifici PRBB | Doctor Aiguader
88 | 08003 Barcelona
Tel: 93 316 04 00 |
www.imim.cat

Dr. JOHN MARTIN, academic researcher and clinician, studied philosophy in Spain and medicine at Sheffield University. He holds the British Heart Foundation Chair in Cardiovascular Science at University College London and is Past President (1992-1995) and Past Vice-President of the European Society of Cardiology (2000-2002). He is the founder of Eurogene, now Ark Therapeutics. Member of the Scientific Executive Committee of the American College of Cardiology and Chairman of the EU Relations Committee, from the European Society of Cardiology.